AT VESPERS

Priest: Blessed is our God ..., Choir: Amen.

Priest: Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, * and upon those in the tombs bestowing life. (2 1/2 times)

Choir: And upon those in the tombs bestowing life.

The usual beginning. The 18th Kathisma.

On “Lord, I have cried ...,” 6 Stichera, 3 from the Pentecostarion, in Tone I:

At the sixth hour the Well-spring of miracles * came to the well to capture the fruit of Eve, * for Eve at this same hour departed from Paradise * through the deceit of the serpent. * The Samaritan woman, therefore, drew nigh to draw water, * and the Savior, upon seeing her, said to her: * Give Me water to drink, and I shall fill thee with living water. * And running to the city, that prudent woman at once announced to the multitudes:  Come, behold Christ the Lord, the Savior of our souls.

In Tone II: When the compassionate Lord came unto the well, * the Samaritan woman entreated Him, saying: * Grant me the water of faith, * and I shall receive the waters of the font of baptism unto rejoicing and redemption.  O Giver of life, Lord, glory be to Thee.

The co-beginningless and co-eternal Son and Word of the Father, * the Well-spring of healings, came to the well, * and a woman of Samaria came to draw water. * And when the Savior saw her, He said: * Give Me water to drink, and go, call thy husband. * But addressing Him as a man and not as God, * and being anxious to hide herself from Him, she said: I have no husband. * And the Teacher replied: Thou hast truly said, I have no husband; * for thou hast had five, and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband. * And she, amazed by these words, hastened to the city * and cried out unto the multitudes, saying:  Come, behold Christ, Who granteth the world great mercy.

And 3 Stichera from the Menaion

Glory ..., in Tone VI:

By Jacob’s Well, Jesus found the Samaritan woman. * He that covereth the earth with clouds asked water of her. * O wonder! He that rideth on the cherubim speaketh with a harlot woman, * asking for water, * He Who hath suspended the earth upon the waters. * He Who causeth springs and pools of waters to flow forth seeketh water, * for He wished to draw to Himself her that was truly ensnared by the contending enemy, * and to impart the water of life unto her * who was sorely inflamed with unseemly deeds,  for He alone is tenderly compassionate and the Lover of mankind.

Both now ..., Theotokion Dogmatic, in Tone IV:

prophet David, the ancestor of God, * spoke of thee in psalmody unto Him Who hath accomplished great things in thee. * For God was well pleased without father to become a man from thee, * the Queen who standeth at His right hand, * and He - the source of life - showed thee to be His mother, * that He might renew His own image, corrupted by the passions. * Having found the lost sheep wandering on the mountain * He hath laid it upon His shoulders, * that He may bring it to his Father; * and in accordance with His own will * unite it to the heavenly powers * and thus, O Theotokos, save the world,  Christ, Who is richly and abundantly merciful.

“O joyous light ...,”

Prokeimenon, in Tone VII:

Prokeimenon: O God, my helper art Thou, * and Thy mercy shall go before me.

Verse: Rescue me from mine enemies, O God, and from them that rise up against me redeem me.

Then, “Vouchsafe O Lord ...,”

The Litany: Let us complete our evening ...,

On the Aposticha, the Stichera of the Resurrection, in Tone IV:

Unceasingly worshiping Thy life-giving Cross, O Christ God, * we glorify Thy Resurrection on the third day, * for through it, O All-powerful one, * Thou hast renewed corrupted human nature * and shown us the way to heaven,  since Thou alone art good and the Lover of mankind.

Verse: The Lord is King, He is clothed with majesty; * the Lord is clothed with strength and He hath girt Himself.

By being willingly nailed to the tree of the Cross, O Savior, * Thou hast abolished the penalty of the tree of disobedience; * and by descending into Hades, O All-powerful one, * as God Thou hast torn asunder the bonds of death. * Wherefore we worship Thy Resurrection from the dead, and we cry out with joy:  O all-powerful Lord, glory be to Thee!

Verse: For He established the world * which shall not be shaken.

Thou hast shattered the gates of Hades, O Lord, * and by Thy death Thou hast destroyed the dominion of death; * delivering mankind from corruption, * granting the world life, incorruption,  and great mercy.

Verse: Holiness becometh Thy house, O Lord, * unto length of days.

O Lord, by ascending the Cross * Thou hast wiped out our ancestral curse, * and by descending into Hades * Thou hast set free those enchained therein from all ages, * granting incorruption to mankind; * wherefore with hymns we glorify  Thy life-giving and saving arising.

Glory ..., Both now ..., in Tone VIII:

When by Thine unfathomable dispensation Thou didst appear on earth, O Christ God, * the Samaritan woman, on hearing Thy words O Lover of mankind, * left the water jar at the well and hastened to those in the city and said: * Come, behold One Who knoweth men's hearts;  mayhap He is the expected Christ, Who hath great mercy.

Then "Now lettest Thy servant ...," Trisagion ..., "Our Father ...," Then:

The mystery hidden from all ages * and unknown to the ranks of angels, * hath been revealed to those on earth through thee, O Theotokos: * God incarnate in an uncommingled union, * Who willingly accepted the Cross for our sake, * and through it hath raised up the first-formed man,  and saved our souls from death.

Refrain: Glory to Thee, Our God, Glory to Thee.

Thou didst appear unto them that sat in darkness, O Lord, since Thou art the unwaning Light and the Life of all. Wherefore, as the assembly of the righteous beheld Thee, O Word, they leaped for joy and cried out: Thou art come to loose all from their bonds; we praise Thy dominion.

Glory..., Both now ..., Exapostilarion of the Samaritan woman:

On coming to Samaria, O Savior, Thou almighty One, didst speak there with a woman and ask of her water, though for the Jews Thou hadst of old brought forth springs from a cloven rock. Thou didst bring her to faith in Thee, and now she doth ever enjoy eternal life in the heavens.

On the Praises, 4 Stichera from the Oktoechos, in Tone IV:

Verse: Praise Him for His mighty acts, praise Him according to the multitude of His greatness.

O all-powerful Lord, * Who didst endure the Cross and death, * and arose from the dead,  we glorify Thy Holy Resurrection.

Verse: Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet: * Praise Him with the psaltery and harp.

By Thy Cross, O Christ, Thou hast delivered us from the ancient curse, * and by Thy death Thou hast conquered the devil who tyrannized our nature. * By Thine arising Thou hast filled all things with joy, * wherefore we cry unto Thee:  “O Lord risen from the dead, glory be to Thee!”

Verse: Praise Him with timbrel and dance: * Praise Him with strings and flute.

O Christ the Savior, * with Thy Cross, guide us to Thy truth, * and deliver us from the snares of the enemy; * O Thou who art risen from the dead * raise us also who have fallen through sin, * by the stretching out of Thy hand, * O Lord, at the behest of the prayers of Thy Saints.

Verse: Praise Him with tuneful cymbals, praise Him with cymbals of jubilation. * Let every breath praise the Lord.

Without departing from Thy Father’s bosom, * in Thy tender compassion, Thou didst descend to earth, * O Only-begotten Word of God, * without change becoming man. * Whilst Thou art impassible in Thy divinity, * Thou didst suffer the Cross and death in the flesh; * and rising from the dead Thou hast granted immortality to the race of mankind,  as Thou alone art All-powerful.

Glory ..., Both now ..., from the Pentecostarion, in Tone VI:

The Well-spring of the principle of life, * Jesus, our Savior, came to the well of the Patriarch Jacob, * and sought water from a Samaritan woman * that He might drink thereof. * And when she addressed Him * and said that the Jews had no dealings with the Samaritans, * the wise Creator diverted her by the sweetness of His words, * so that she would seek from Him everlasting water, * which, when she received it, * she proclaimed to all, saying: * Come and see the Knower of things hidden,  God Who is come in the flesh to save mankind.

Reader: To Thee is due glory ...,

Priest: Glory to Thee Who hast shown us the Light.

On the Aposticha, these Stichera, in Tone IV :

Having seen seated at the well the ever-flowing Well-spring, * she who burned with numerous passions, * sought to receive for herself the living water which doth flow from Him like a spring, * which she freely obtained from the Word. * And no longer doth she need to hasten * and draw that water from the well there,  which is earthen and perisheth.

Verse: Bend Thy bow, and proceed prosperously, and be king, * because of truth and meekness and righteousness.

The woman rejected those things which the Jews observed, * setting forth the lack of relations between them; * then Christ, the wise Creator, * by His sweet words diverted her * by granting her to drink of the divine life-giving water. * And when she had partaken thereof, * she hastened to those who dwelt in the city  and informed them of what had come to pass.

Verse: Thou hast loved righteousness and hated iniquity. Wherefore God, Thy God, hath anointed Thee * with the oil of gladness more than Thy fellows.

Thou dost not have a bucket, * and the well is exceeding deep. * From whence then shalt Thou give me this immortal water? * Thus said the Samaritan woman to Thee as to a mortal man, * not knowing that Thou art God, * she marveled at what was spoken by Thee. * But by having her partake of Thy sweet words, * Thou didst prepare her to confess Thee  to be the God of all creation.

Glory ..., Both now ..., in Tone VI:

Thus saith the Lord unto the woman of Samaria: * If thou knewest the gift of God, * and Who it is that saith to thee: * Give Me water to drink, * thou wouldst have asked Him, * and He would have given unto thee to drink,  that thou mightest never thirst unto eternity, saith the Lord.

Verse: Clap your hands, all ye nations; shout unto God with a voice of rejoicing.

THE ACTS OF THE HOLY APOSTLES: (ACTS 15:35 - 41)

In those days: Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the LORD, and see how they do. And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark. But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus; And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God. And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

Alleluia, in Tone IV:

Verse: Bend Thy bow, and proceed prosperously, and be king, because of truth and meekness and righteousness.

Verse: Thou hast loved righteousness and hated iniquity.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN (10:27 - 38)

The Lord said unto the Jews who came unto Him: My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one. Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

In place of “It is meet” The Zadostoinik is chanted from ODE IX.

Refrain: The angel cried unto her that is full of grace: * Rejoice, O pure Virgin! And again I say, rejoice! * For thy Son is risen from the grave on the third day.

Irmos: Shine, shine, O new Jerusalem, * for the glory of the Lord hath arisen upon thee; * dance now and be glad, O Zion, * and do thou exult, O pure Theotokos, * in the arising of Him Whom thou didst bear.

Communion Verse: Receive ye the body of Christ, taste ye of the fountain of immortality. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

We sing “Christ is risen ...,” instead of “We have seen the true light ...,”

At the dismissal, when the priest saith: “Glory to Thee, O Christ God ...,” The Choir chanteth “Christ is risen ...,” x3 instead of “Glory ..., Both now ..., Father bless!” Then the priest giveth the dismissal.
